

Protective Packaging Solutions

Description

FROMM offers worldwide expertise in protective packaging, including Bubble wrap, Airpad film, Void Fill Machines, VCI protective packaging. We offer light, clean, and easily disposable protective materials to avoid product damage and cover all your protective needs.

FROMM's high vertical integration, from product design to sales, enables close control over the entire production process, reducing environmental burden wherever possible. Besides optimizing its production processes, FROMM has developed techniques for recycling plastic materials.

With our expertise in integration and superior protection of goods, you can be confident that whether your choice is air cushions or paper, we have put your productivity as our prime focus.

Airpads Solutions

The new and compact Airpad AP100 is very user friendly packaging machine and ideal for decentralized packing stations. It has a simple control panel. Loading the film is quick and easy. Its suitable for every work station. Void fill is necessary for a space-efficient protective packaging. And Airpad Ap100 machines are great choice when it comes to creating void fill.

Features

- Small footprint for easy integration
- Stand-alone or multiple operator configurations
- Ideal for decentralized packaging stations
- User friendly
- USB tracker for easy collection of comprehensive usage statistics

Options

- Compact mobile bin
- Overhead hopper system
- Compact stand
- Standalone floor winder